EDUCATIONAL SEMINAR

'Authentic Project Management'

all people, all fields, all projects

Contemporary thinking in project management incorporates a strategic understanding of matters such as governance, enterprise risk management, ethics, sustainability, value for money and emotional intelligence. Doug Wheeler, UNE Partnerships' lead consultant, will be introducing the concept of 'Authentic Project Management' which will consolidate these topics and enhance optimal decision making in the project environment.

Join us for this unique seminar and find out more about the range of qualifications and products offered by UNE Partnerships.

Date: Tuesday 31 January 2012

Time: 5.30pm for 6pm start with light refreshments provided
